

TUTT AND JEFF—Outside of That Jeff Has Nothing to Do All Day

—By Bud Fisher,

(Copyright, 1915, by H. C. Fisher. Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)

KENDALL SQUAD IN A BRISK PRACTICE

Only Twenty Minutes Was Devoted to the Forward Pass.

CONFIDENCE GALORE

Best Possible Lineup Will Be Put Into the Game Tomorrow.

Twenty-five men were out for football practice yesterday afternoon on the Kendall field. Coach McElroy put them through a strenuous workout which lasted for three hours. The only absence was Patsy Blevins, the monster tackle, who has not shown up for practice for over a week. Even the notable manager, Mr. Frank Johnson, was on the field.

Twenty minutes was all the time spent on forward passes, and most of the afternoon was devoted to fast signal drill and scrimmage. The scrubs were to carry the ball through the great defense put up by the Kendall line, but after they failed to gain yards in some number of downs, the scrubs gave up the ball to the regulars.

The game backfield, which has worked together all year, was in fine shape last night. With the aid of a strong line they made gain after gain by straight football.

Everett Fleet, playing on the line for the second team, showed to advantage and it was with difficulty that the gains were made through his side of the line.

There was much confidence in the midst of the Kendall players last night when they had finished practice. There was not an injured man on the entire squad. This means that the Kendall team will put forth their best possible lineup in the game tomorrow. There will be no effort to put forth if the team does not win the game against the Aggies at Stillwater.

There was small hopes left last night that a special train would be run from Tulsa to Stillwater Friday night. There will be no train to attend the game. Only six persons announced their intentions of going on the trip, and that number is entirely too small. Those who wish to go will not be able to reach Tulsa after the game Saturday morning, unless they choose to ride most of the night.

The final practice before the big game will be on the Kendall field this afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock.

TODAY'S RACE ENTRIES

LAUREL.
FIRST RACE—Five furlongs. Dr. Greener 104, Redbird 104, Vedado 105, Life 105, Scottish Knight 107, Eddie 107, On the Border 108, Redbird 109, School for Soldiers 109, Good Counsel 112, Ataka 114, Imperious 114.
SECOND RACE—Five furlongs. Rockaway 105, Star of Sea 105, Shrewsbury 108, Mr. Bob 108, Harry 110, Antelope 110, On the Border 110, Lights Out 110, Jackie 110, Fuzzy Wuzzy 111, Chance 111, Proteus 112, The Wanderer 112, Superintendant 117, Cleodora 116, Lady Barbara 120, Joe Blair 126, Heister 129, Penna 130, Hanson 134.
THIRD RACE—Five furlongs. Luree Bryne 98, Distant Shore 105, Rally 115, Comette 118, The Finn 123, Trial by Jury 124.
FOURTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Moonstone 100, Rennie Harris 105, Mayne 108, Laria 108, Favour 110, Hidden Star 110, Miss Purple 112, Malachite 112, Anita 112, Regina 112, Puss in Boots 115, Cleodora 118.
FIFTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Moonstone 100, Rennie Harris 105, Mayne 108, Laria 108, Favour 110, Hidden Star 110, Miss Purple 112, Malachite 112, Anita 112, Regina 112, Puss in Boots 115, Cleodora 118.

LIENHARD WINS THE RAPID FIRE MATCH

JACKSONVILLE, Florida, Oct. 13.—Sergeant Jacob Lienhard, United States marine corps, won the rapid fire rifle match in the National Rifle Association matches on the Florida state range here today. The match was closely contested, Lienhard being tied with a perfect score at the end of the first stage. Lienhard won in the second stage. Five riflemen were tied for second place and it was decided to shoot for second honors tomorrow.

The rapid fire match was the only one completed today. The final stage of the shoot for the president's cup is scheduled for tomorrow. Second infantry national guard of Indiana was leading at the end of the third stage of the president's cup match today. Shooting at 200 and 300 yards rapid fire and 400 yards slow fire, Lieutenant Middleton made 174 points out of a possible 175. There were two hundred riflemen in this shoot. The score of the lowest man was 165.

KENDALL SQUAD IN A BRISK PRACTICE

Erle Beats Pappas.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 13.—Johnnie Erle of St. Paul, Minn., claimant of the lightweight championship, gained the decision in an eight-round bout with Jimmie Pappas of Atlanta, Ga., here last night. The men weighed in at 135.

Michigan Defeats Marietta.
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 13.—Football game between the University of Michigan eleven and a 28 to 6 victory over the speedy Marietta, Ohio, college team here today.

Hooper is Hero of Series Won by Red Sox

(Continued From Page One)

ing with Alexander, but thereafter were not to be denied. When the Philadelphia team fielded brilliantly the Boston players shone with just that greater degree of radiance which separates the winner from the loser. When the Philadelphia pitching was airtight, the Boston batting was just a little tighter. And today when the long silent bats of the Phillies began a lilting song of hits and singles, the Boston batters crashed in more strident tones. Never very far above their rivals in any one of the first games, the American leaguers in the last four starts were always just within the shadowed line of success. It was a hard series for the Phillies to lose, but a brilliant victory for the Boston Sox.

Just Lacked the "Punch."
Supposedly outclassed from the start with the exception of one star pitcher, the Phillies fought stubbornly and desperately and were not such easy come they lost. The drive, the "punch," the ultimate smash, was missing, however, and they could never given their pitchers a comfortable margin to work under. It seemed that the tide was about to turn to the Phillies this afternoon when they carried the game in the eighth inning two runs to the good. But the Sox were out for victory and their stinging hits for a total of twenty-one runs ended the death knell of Philly hopes.

"Colonel" Rixey was called to the mound and the Sox's assault was suddenly stopped. The home team gave the "colonel" two additional innings in the fourth and it seemed that he was destined to be a winner until the visitors took their eighth turn at bat.

Up to this time the thousands of fans had been confident of victory and had been treated to more thrills than all of the other games of the series had offered.

Fans Cheer at Defeat.
It was a cruel descent to the depths of despair for them when "Duffy" Lewis, batting mainstay of the Sox throughout the series, sent his home run to the stands and tied the score. This long hit made it possible for Hooper's homer to give the finishing touch to the game and the series.

But the Philly fans were as game as their ball players had been and were as generous as their players had been gleefully. They knew the Phillies star was setting fast but they cheered Lewis for his batting prowess and cheered Hooper in the fatal ninth for his second homer, though with the sure knowledge of defeat.

George Foster of Bokoshe, Oklahoma, and Bonanza, Ark., won his second game of the series. Foster got a warm reception today from the very start but he stuck gruffly to his task and finally withstood the most furious fusillade the Phillies had fired throughout the series. Smashed and hammered in the first and fourth, Foster was always fighting back and was always a dangerous factor at the bat. He gave an game an exhibition of twirling as has ever been seen in any league and there were few participants in the Philly stands who begrudged him victory.

Base Stealing Abent.
The Phillies made nine hits off the diminutive Foster for a total of thirteen bases. This hitting was good enough to have won any of the games that went the way of the Sox except the contest today. The Sox since Friday last always seemed to hold the winning hand.

No cleaner world's series was ever played. The men of both teams won the hearts of the fans, both here and in Boston, by their gentlemanly conduct on the field and the sportsmanlike manner in which they went about their work.

One notable feature of the series was the lack of base running. It seemed from the start as though pilfering had become a lost art.

While the closing game abounded in thrills it was a loosely played contest in which the offensive strength of both teams overshadowed their defensive work. It might be called the game of heavy hitting, seeing that the deciding game of a world's series was crowded with four home runs, one triple and one double. Broadly speak-

COMSTOCK'S SUCCESSOR WILL ENFORCE THE LAW

The Red Sox came back at the Phillies in the second with one run. After Hobbitt was thrown out, Luderus to Mayer and Lewis grounded out. Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner smashed a three-bagger to the center field fence. Barry brought Gardner home with a Texas leaguer in short left field. Thomas singled over second and Barry took second. Both runners were left as Foster fled to Luderus.

The Phillies were easy outs in the second. Niehoff struck out on three pitched balls. Burns sent a fly to Gardner and Mayer also struck out. Gordon tied the score in the third. Hooper drove to the centerfield fence where the ball bounced in among the bleachers for his first home run and the first circuit drive in the series. Scott fled out to Podark and then Speaker stepped to right.

Here Manager Pat Moran called on Rixey to replace Mayer. Boston had made six hits in two and one-third innings off Mayer. At the same time Manager Carrigan sent in Gardner to replace Hobbitt, who is not much of a success against left-handers. Gardner, however, killed the inning by hitting into a double play. Bancroft scooped up his grounder on the run, touched second and snapped the ball to first ahead of Gardner.

Backset Out Stealing.
Philadelphia got a single off Foster in the third but that was all. Stock went out, Gardner to Gainer. Bancroft fled to Hooper. Paskert singled over second and in attempting to steal was thrown out. Thomas to the infield. Lewis opened the Red Sox fourth by flying out to Whitford. Gardner drew a base on balls and was forced out at second on Barry's grounder. Stock to Niehoff.

Thomas fled out to Cravath. The night fielders' only chance in the afternoon. The National leaguers again took the lead in the fourth. Cravath struck out. Luderus caught Foster's first pitch square on his bat sent a slightly swiping and poked it out of the park over the high right field wall for a home run. Whitford fled to Gardner and then Niehoff, who had not hit safely in the series up to this time, singled to centerfield. Here occurred some base stealing.

Hooper Gets One Error.
Burns singled to right and Niehoff sprang to second and dashed for third. Hooper made a lightning throw to the bag but it was wide and the ball struck the grandstand. By the time Gardner recovered the ball Niehoff was past third base and Gardner, thinking Niehoff would try to score, made a wide throw to Thomas at the plate. Thomas fell all over the horsehide trying to field it and it rolled into the infield. Niehoff dashed for home with no one covering the plate. The official scorers decided Niehoff had Hooper's throw beaten to third and charged Gardner with an error for the throw which permitted Niehoff to score. Two innings later the umpires announced they had decided a runner was to be called upon to ward off final defeat for the championship. Mayer, however, was given a fine welcome. Hooper began his busy afternoon by lacing the first ball pitched to center field. Scott fled to Niehoff. Speaker went out. Rixey to Luderus. The runners advancing a base, but Gainer ended the inning by flying out to Niehoff.

Bancroft Out Stealing.
For the Phillies in the fifth Bancroft was the only man to get on the base lines but he did not get around. Stock grounded out, Gardner to Gainer. Bancroft sent a streaking single to center and was held to the bag by Speaker, who gathered in Paskert's long fly. With Cravath on Bancroft tried to steal and was thrown out. Thomas to Scott.

The Red Sox put two men on first in the sixth inning but the side was again blanked. Lewis opened by grounding out. Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner felled to Burns. Barry hammered a grounder at Bancroft, who made a wild throw to first and Barry reached second. Manager Carrigan sent in Cady to bat for Thomas. Cady drew a pass but Foster ended the inning by grounding out, Niehoff to Luderus.

Luderus Is Walked.
Cady went in to catch in Thomas' place in the sixth. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

COMSTOCK'S SUCCESSOR WILL ENFORCE THE LAW

The Red Sox came back at the Phillies in the second with one run. After Hobbitt was thrown out, Luderus to Mayer and Lewis grounded out. Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner smashed a three-bagger to the center field fence. Barry brought Gardner home with a Texas leaguer in short left field. Thomas singled over second and Barry took second. Both runners were left as Foster fled to Luderus.

The Phillies were easy outs in the second. Niehoff struck out on three pitched balls. Burns sent a fly to Gardner and Mayer also struck out. Gordon tied the score in the third. Hooper drove to the centerfield fence where the ball bounced in among the bleachers for his first home run and the first circuit drive in the series. Scott fled out to Podark and then Speaker stepped to right.

Here Manager Pat Moran called on Rixey to replace Mayer. Boston had made six hits in two and one-third innings off Mayer. At the same time Manager Carrigan sent in Gardner to replace Hobbitt, who is not much of a success against left-handers. Gardner, however, killed the inning by hitting into a double play. Bancroft scooped up his grounder on the run, touched second and snapped the ball to first ahead of Gardner.

Backset Out Stealing.
Philadelphia got a single off Foster in the third but that was all. Stock went out, Gardner to Gainer. Bancroft fled to Hooper. Paskert singled over second and in attempting to steal was thrown out. Thomas to the infield. Lewis opened the Red Sox fourth by flying out to Whitford. Gardner drew a base on balls and was forced out at second on Barry's grounder. Stock to Niehoff.

Thomas fled out to Cravath. The night fielders' only chance in the afternoon. The National leaguers again took the lead in the fourth. Cravath struck out. Luderus caught Foster's first pitch square on his bat sent a slightly swiping and poked it out of the park over the high right field wall for a home run. Whitford fled to Gardner and then Niehoff, who had not hit safely in the series up to this time, singled to centerfield. Here occurred some base stealing.

Hooper Gets One Error.
Burns singled to right and Niehoff sprang to second and dashed for third. Hooper made a lightning throw to the bag but it was wide and the ball struck the grandstand. By the time Gardner recovered the ball Niehoff was past third base and Gardner, thinking Niehoff would try to score, made a wide throw to Thomas at the plate. Thomas fell all over the horsehide trying to field it and it rolled into the infield. Niehoff dashed for home with no one covering the plate. The official scorers decided Niehoff had Hooper's throw beaten to third and charged Gardner with an error for the throw which permitted Niehoff to score. Two innings later the umpires announced they had decided a runner was to be called upon to ward off final defeat for the championship. Mayer, however, was given a fine welcome. Hooper began his busy afternoon by lacing the first ball pitched to center field. Scott fled to Niehoff. Speaker went out. Rixey to Luderus. The runners advancing a base, but Gainer ended the inning by flying out to Niehoff.

Bancroft Out Stealing.
For the Phillies in the fifth Bancroft was the only man to get on the base lines but he did not get around. Stock grounded out, Gardner to Gainer. Bancroft sent a streaking single to center and was held to the bag by Speaker, who gathered in Paskert's long fly. With Cravath on Bancroft tried to steal and was thrown out. Thomas to Scott.

The Red Sox put two men on first in the sixth inning but the side was again blanked. Lewis opened by grounding out. Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner felled to Burns. Barry hammered a grounder at Bancroft, who made a wild throw to first and Barry reached second. Manager Carrigan sent in Cady to bat for Thomas. Cady drew a pass but Foster ended the inning by grounding out, Niehoff to Luderus.

Luderus Is Walked.
Cady went in to catch in Thomas' place in the sixth. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

COMSTOCK'S SUCCESSOR WILL ENFORCE THE LAW

The Red Sox came back at the Phillies in the second with one run. After Hobbitt was thrown out, Luderus to Mayer and Lewis grounded out. Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner smashed a three-bagger to the center field fence. Barry brought Gardner home with a Texas leaguer in short left field. Thomas singled over second and Barry took second. Both runners were left as Foster fled to Luderus.

The Phillies were easy outs in the second. Niehoff struck out on three pitched balls. Burns sent a fly to Gardner and Mayer also struck out. Gordon tied the score in the third. Hooper drove to the centerfield fence where the ball bounced in among the bleachers for his first home run and the first circuit drive in the series. Scott fled out to Podark and then Speaker stepped to right.

Here Manager Pat Moran called on Rixey to replace Mayer. Boston had made six hits in two and one-third innings off Mayer. At the same time Manager Carrigan sent in Gardner to replace Hobbitt, who is not much of a success against left-handers. Gardner, however, killed the inning by hitting into a double play. Bancroft scooped up his grounder on the run, touched second and snapped the ball to first ahead of Gardner.

Backset Out Stealing.
Philadelphia got a single off Foster in the third but that was all. Stock went out, Gardner to Gainer. Bancroft fled to Hooper. Paskert singled over second and in attempting to steal was thrown out. Thomas to the infield. Lewis opened the Red Sox fourth by flying out to Whitford. Gardner drew a base on balls and was forced out at second on Barry's grounder. Stock to Niehoff.

Thomas fled out to Cravath. The night fielders' only chance in the afternoon. The National leaguers again took the lead in the fourth. Cravath struck out. Luderus caught Foster's first pitch square on his bat sent a slightly swiping and poked it out of the park over the high right field wall for a home run. Whitford fled to Gardner and then Niehoff, who had not hit safely in the series up to this time, singled to centerfield. Here occurred some base stealing.

Hooper Gets One Error.
Burns singled to right and Niehoff sprang to second and dashed for third. Hooper made a lightning throw to the bag but it was wide and the ball struck the grandstand. By the time Gardner recovered the ball Niehoff was past third base and Gardner, thinking Niehoff would try to score, made a wide throw to Thomas at the plate. Thomas fell all over the horsehide trying to field it and it rolled into the infield. Niehoff dashed for home with no one covering the plate. The official scorers decided Niehoff had Hooper's throw beaten to third and charged Gardner with an error for the throw which permitted Niehoff to score. Two innings later the umpires announced they had decided a runner was to be called upon to ward off final defeat for the championship. Mayer, however, was given a fine welcome. Hooper began his busy afternoon by lacing the first ball pitched to center field. Scott fled to Niehoff. Speaker went out. Rixey to Luderus. The runners advancing a base, but Gainer ended the inning by flying out to Niehoff.

Bancroft Out Stealing.
For the Phillies in the fifth Bancroft was the only man to get on the base lines but he did not get around. Stock grounded out, Gardner to Gainer. Bancroft sent a streaking single to center and was held to the bag by Speaker, who gathered in Paskert's long fly. With Cravath on Bancroft tried to steal and was thrown out. Thomas to Scott.

The Red Sox put two men on first in the sixth inning but the side was again blanked. Lewis opened by grounding out. Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner felled to Burns. Barry hammered a grounder at Bancroft, who made a wild throw to first and Barry reached second. Manager Carrigan sent in Cady to bat for Thomas. Cady drew a pass but Foster ended the inning by grounding out, Niehoff to Luderus.

Luderus Is Walked.
Cady went in to catch in Thomas' place in the sixth. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.

The so-called lucky seventh inning did not bring scores to either team. Boston was quickly disposed of. Hooper grounded out Niehoff to Luderus. Scott fled to Luderus. Bancroft splendidly took Speaker's scorching hot grounder and retired Tris at first. Niehoff, first up for the Quakers,

struck out. Cravath, first up for the Phillies, was struck out for the second time. Foster did not take any chances with Luderus, who already had a double and home run to his credit, and gave the Philly captain a base on balls. Luderus dashed for second as Whitford struck at the ball and missed and the home captain was easily thrown out by Cady. Whitford then fled out to Speaker.